June 24 - Architect Adventures

at the historic Schlegelmilch House | 517 S. Farwell St., Eau Claire

Study secret spaces of a local landmark, and meet local artist Patricia Hawkenson who will help you create an urban sketch and stained glass inspired design to take home.

July 8 - History Foodies | $3 for Materials

Research vintage recipes to figure out what your ancestors ate, and design a menu for 19th, 20th, and 21st century tastes. You'll learn about food preservation, the art of canning, and take home a mason jar full of refrigerator pickles.

July 15 - Inventor's Workshop | $4 for Materials

Test out vintage toys to unlock how they work, go on an exclusive tour of the mysterious "Building D", see if you can Guess the Gizmo to win a prize, and build a Cinch Puzzle to entertain your friends and family.

July 22 - Digging Up the Past | $4 for Materials

Examine a real mammoth tooth and other early artifacts, then explore experimental archeology to see how people made rope from cordage, use your own fossil kit to mold a replica from clay, and mix up a dirt pudding snack.

July 29 - Homesteaders | $4 for Materials

Go "off-grid" with a visit to an 1860's log home where you'll find out how to card and spin wool to make clothes, and test out an antique wringer machine for washing them. You'll make a sample sized bar of soap and take your soap making kit home with you.

August 5 - Sounds of Home | $3 for Materials

Check out the museum's newest, music-themed exhibit to celebrate local music - past and present. Build and decorate your own spin drum, and join in an "All Star Jam".
